PROGRAM

Sonata Eroïca pour Grand Orgue – Joseph Jongen
Passacaglia, BWV 582 – J. S. Bach
Funérailles (d'après Lamartine), trans. Nathan Laube – Franz Liszt
Sonata on the 94th Psalm – Julius Reubke

“Widely considered one of the most brilliant younger American organists” (The Dallas Morning Herald), Nathan Laube earns praise for his “lucid phrasing, uncanny use of solo and ensemble color, and perception and depth unusual in someone his age.” (The Boston Musical Intelligencer)

“Nathan Laube, once a ‘rising star,’ is now an international star, and his consummate musicianship is justifiably celebrated worldwide. How fortunate we are that he just happens to be an organist.” (The Tracker)

“His playing was flawless, inspired, and for want of a better word, transporting.” (The Diapason)

Nathan Laube is arguably the best concert organist in America, and rarely do we have the opportunity to experience a program of such profound magnitude by such a great musician! Plan to come early for a good seat. For a taste of what’s in store, watch and listen to Nathan’s totally stunning live concert performance of the Sonata Eroïca on YouTube at www.youtube.com/watch?v=JI4z3xr\_QIM. You will be inspired!
