Alan Morrison, organist

Friday, September 27, 2024, 7:30 p.m.

River Road Church, Baptist ~ 8000 River Road

1970 M.P. Möller / 2017 Emery Brothers organ, 4 manuals, 73 stops

Alan Morrison is recognized as one of America's premier concert organists. His performances throughout North and South America, Europe, and Russia have been received with enthusiastic praise for his quality programming, colorful use of the organ, and interpretive integrity. He was recently honored by the Philadelphia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists with the Distinguished Achievement Award in recognition of his teaching and performing careers.

Since 2002, Mr. Morrison has been head of the organ department at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. He has served as College Organist at Ursinus College in Collegeville, PA, since 1995, and he was recently appointed Organist-in-Residence at Spivey Hall, Clayton State University, Georgia.

Mr. Morrison has appeared in concert with groups such as Chanticleer, Empire Brass, Rodney Marsalis Philadelphia Big Brass, and the U.S. Army Chorus. He has performed concertos by Jongen, Poulenc, Paulus, Barber, Sessler, Handel, Chilcott, and others with orchestras throughout the United States. He is a regular performer at Philadelphia's Verizon Hall, where he performs as an organ soloist, a concerto soloist, with choral and brass groups, and with The Philadelphia Orchestra.

A champion of American composers, Alan Morrison has premiered important new works by William Bolcom, Adolphus Hailstork, Rachel Laurin, Dan Locklair, Emily Maxson-Porter, Mary Beth Bennett, Eric Sessler, Kyle Smith, Jon Spong, Brent Weaver, Daniel Crozier, and Bob Chilcott. One of Morrison's CD recordings, American Voyage, features an all-American program with works by Creston, King, Crozier, Locklair, Stover, and Sessler. His numerous CD recordings are currently available through the internet and on iTunes.

Morrison has performed at five national conventions of the AGO — in Atlanta '92, New York City '96, Philadelphia '02, Chicago '06, and Atlanta '20 — as well as at numerous regional conventions. A graduate of both the Curtis Institute of Music and the Juilliard School of Music, his teachers were Sarah Martin, Cherry Rhodes, and John Weaver for organ, and Robert Harvey, Vladimir Sokoloff, and Susan Starr for piano.

Alan Morrison is represented in North America exclusively by Karen McFarlane Artists, Inc.

DEAN'S LETTER TO MEMBERS

Happy(?) September! It's technically the end of August as I'm writing this, and as usual, I'm simultaneously looking forward to getting started with choir rehearsals and wondering just where the heck the summer went – particularly this last month, which seemed to pass in a blink.

One of the highlights of my summer was attending the AGO National Convention in San Francisco, which featured several performers with Richmond connections – we'd of course highlighted Mary Beth Bennett playing for Morning Prayer at Grace Cathedral (which was terrific), but when I arrived, I found out that one of our former Scholarship students, Ali Santos (who was a student of Patricia Schrock and Daniel Sañez and then went on to study at Eastman), was a finalist in the National Young Artist Competition in Performance, and I was able to get over to the finals to hear her play. Meanwhile, Allen Bean attended one of the "Rising Stars" recitals and noticed that one of the performers, Abigail Crafton from Savannah, Georgia, listed Richmond Chapter members Doug Brown and Daniel Sañez among her teachers - she lived in Richmond before moving, and Daniel tells me she's now off to Eastman at age 16!

We have an exciting season coming up, the details of which you can see right below the Dean's Letter; I'd like to draw your attention to the first meeting, which will be a dinner at All Saints Episcopal Church on Friday, September 27. We'll gather for dinner at 5:30, have our Chapter Meeting and Installation of Officers at 6:30, and then head down the road to River Road Church Baptist to hear Alan Morrison play the season's first Recital Series concert. Paul Honaker will once again be taking dinner reservations, so please RSVP to Paul (paul.honaker@comcast.net (<mailto:paul.honaker@comcast.net>) or 804-467-6441) by Friday, September 20. You can let him know if you need a vegetarian or gluten-free option when you RSVP. The price per person will be $17; the menu is still being decided, but we will send an e-mail to the Chapter once it's ready. Many thanks to our new Sub-Dean. Many thanks to our new Sub-Dean, Joel Kumro, for pulling together the programs for the coming season!

We'll also have a few more Dean's Lunches, starting in October – more on that next issue! Best wishes to all of you who are getting going with your fall semesters, program years, concert seasons, and so forth, and I hope to see you at our first meeting in September!

REHARMONIZATIONS 2024

A Summer Project for Every Member

We hope you haven't forgotten this summer's chapter-wide project and are putting the last touches on the final measures of the new harmonies for one or more hymns. We originally set a deadline for this project of September 15th. If you will have trouble making this date, just let me know that you'll be submitting your copies soon thereafter.

We've gotten some descants, too, so feel free to submit those, too. Just remember – the hymns must be in the public domain, the harmonies must be original, and your certification should accompany the submission. You can find the submission form and all material related to this project on the chapter's website.

Happy (re)Harmony!!!!!!!!!!

Chapter Treasurer

RODGERS PLAY

REMOTE CONTROL APP

Rodgers Play is a novel new tool that allows you to control your organ while away from the console. Now you can create a playlist of pieces to playback for services, events, or gatherings when an organist is unavailable.

- Remotely control playback of hymns, preludes, and other onboard music
- Create playlists, including with your own Rodgers recordings stored on a USB drive
- Adjust tempo or transpose directly from the app

Available now on these models, more coming soon!
