OCTOBER CHAPTER MEETING

Tuesday, October 8, 2024

Margaret Harper Presents:

"Colors and Characters of the French Baroque"

An exploration of instrument design, playing technique, and variety of repertoire from an often misunderstood era of pipe organ history.

Gather at 5:30 PM, dinner at 6:00 PM, program at 7:00 PM

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

815 E Grace St, Richmond, VA 23219

Margaret Harper is the Director of Music at Trinity Episcopal Church in Princeton, NJ. At Trinity, she oversees a landmark Episcopal music program, including multiple choirs that have released critically acclaimed recordings over the years. Before coming to Trinity, Margaret served churches in Texas, New York, Illinois, and New Hampshire. She was founding manager of the RSCM-America's Dallas Boys Course and founding director of the Choir School at St. John's in Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Margaret also maintains an active schedule as a solo performer and a guest conductor. She has been hailed by The Diapason magazine for her "impeccable" playing and by the Boston Musical Intelligencer for "outstandingly lively, punchy" performances. Croatian newspaper Glas Slavonije writes, "The freezing cold of a January evening dominated the cathedral in Djakovo, but it could not diminish the richness and warmth of sound brought out of the cathedral organ by Margaret Harper." Summer concerts in 2024 brought her to England and Germany, and the 2024-2025 season will include trips across the US and to Sweden.

Margaret has also served on faculty at Baylor University and the University of Southern Maine, teaching organ and harpsichord. Margaret holds a DMA and a Performer's Certificate from the Eastman School of Music. She has served in leadership roles for various chapters of the American Guild of Organists, the Association of Anglican Musicians, and the Royal School of Church Music - America. She has presented papers and given recitals at conferences of several national organizations, including the American Guild of Organists, Organ Historical Society, Association of Anglican Musicians, and American Bach Society.

MAY CHAPTER MEETING

May Chapter Meeting and Scholarship Student Recital
First Presbyterian Church

THE DEAN'S LETTER TO MEMBERS

I'm writing this letter the morning after our first Chapter events – dinner at All Saints Episcopal Church with installation of officers prior to Alan Morrison's Recital Series performance at River Road Church, Baptist. Both events were wonderful, and well attended, so it feels like our program year is off to a good start!

Our next Chapter event is coming up very soon – on Tuesday, October 8 at 7:00 PM, Dr. Margaret Harper will present what's sure to be a fascinating program on French Baroque organ music at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in downtown Richmond. We'll have dinner prior to that program as well, and in fact, all of our evening meetings this year will begin with a dinner as a way to offer a regular opportunity for fellowship among our members.

I do want to note that starting with this dinner, costs will rise to $20 per person for the rest of the year (with the exception of the February dinner, which will be a little bit more because the venue requires a different caterer). That is the actual cost of dinner per person with our caterer, which we've been able to subsidize a bit in recent years – but realistically, $20 for dinner these days is not a bad deal, and the Executive Committee agreed that it made sense to raise the price.

On the topic of meals, we'll have our first Dean's Lunch of the program year at noon on Tuesday, October 22 at MOSAIC (6229-A River Rd, Richmond, 23229). Please RSVP to me by Tuesday, October 15 if you can make it!

I hope all of your fall activities have started well, and I'm looking forward to seeing you at an upcoming Chapter event!
